AAMCO Debuts New Service Center in Oklahoma

Local Center Will Offer Total Car Care Services to the Broken Arrow Community

HORSHAM, Pa. – AAMCO, the world's largest chain of transmission specialists and leader in total car care, is pleased to announce the opening of a new service center in Broken Arrow, just outside of Tulsa. The new center located at 215 E. Kenosha Street, Broken Arrow, OK 74012 brings AAMCO's number of Tulsa area service centers to three.

AAMCO Broken Arrow opened its doors on June 14 offering area drivers a high-quality auto repair experience including seasonal offers and discounts.

"At AAMCO Broken Arrow, we aim for first-class service, whether we are repairing brake pads or rebuilding a transmission," says James D. Garrett, owner of AAMCO Broken Arrow. "Our goal is to get our drivers safely and swiftly back on the road again."

"We are proud of our expansion in Northeast Oklahoma," says Rob Rajkowski, chief operating officer at AAMCO. "The Broken Arrow center, like most of our facilities, offers total car care services that cater to today's customers."

Today's automobiles have become increasingly technological. AAMCO Broken Arrow has built its state-of-the-art repair shop to cater to the modern customer. Total Car Care services offered include, but are not limited to, transmission repair, air conditioning services, battery maintenance and charging service, belts and hoses inspection, brackets and mounts, brake service and repair, tire rotation and much more.

As a benefit to the local community, AAMCO is offering drivers promotional deals at its new service center through August 14, 2014. Visit AAMCO Broken Arrow online to print the service deals.

Download the iGAAUGE app today to access automotive assistance and service centers while on the go. And tune-in to AAMCOCarCare on YouTube for seasonal tips and additional car maintenance advice.
